

Being a PLANT Fellow, exciting careers and a stimulating workplace come together with a great sense of belonging. We aim to create an environment where the most talented and qualified people want to be.

PLANT FELLOWS offers 40% cofunding to a postdoctoral position.

Contact: Zurich–Basel Plant Science Center
Switzerland, info@plantfellows.ch

Who can apply?

Researchers from all over the world can apply for a fellowship. You must have either a doctoral degree or at least 4 years' full-time research experience, after obtaining a degree permitting you to embark on a doctorate.

How to apply?

Applications need to be electronically submitted at www.plantfellows.ch in reply to four programme calls:
June-Aug 2012
Nov 2012-Jan 2013
Feb-Jun 2013
Jan-Mar 2014

PLANT FELLOWS training

Unique in its kind PLANT FELLOWS offers a structured training programme for post docs.

Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PLANT FELLOWS training courses
Career Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal Development Plan • Face to face mentoring
Networking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Idea labs with industry • Career events

Fellowship schemes

At the date of application submission, the researcher must not have resided or carried out his/her main activity in the country of the host organisation for more than 12 months in the 3 years immediately prior to the application submission (=transnational mobility).

Incoming	Outgoing	Reintegration
From EU Member States or Associated Countries or Third Countries to Switzerland or EU Member States.	From an EU Member State or an Associate Country in another EU Member State, Associate Country or Third Country. Outgoing mobility for a stay in a Third Country should be coupled to a return phase to a EU Member State or Associated Country.	EU Member State or Associated Country residents having carried out research in a Third Country for at least the last 3 years and who wish to take up a research position within the EU Member States or Associated Countries.

Training certification

The fellows in the programme have the opportunity to obtain a certification comprised to a workload of 180 hours.

