Date: 5.06.2019

Time: 18- 19:30 followed by Aperero and Networking

Description: Meet 4 professionals from the industry and learn more about their careers and the different job roles in the life sciences. In a panel discussion, these people will give you insight into their jobs, tell us about their everyday life and what it needs to enter industry. This is the chance to ask your questions and get tips on career choices and career entry. Also, on the agenda: their experiences as parent in industry and how they manage job and family.

This panel discussion is part of the feminno program*, but open to all female students from Life Science Graduate School and PSC.
